Becoming an IU Core School: Marching to the Beat of the Same Drum

- Richard Griffin, HR Business Partner; Peggy Frey, Assistant Dean, Finance and Resource Management; Christy Teter, Business Manager; Tammy Leone, HR Generalist; Hillary Frazier, Administrative Coordinator, Faculty Affairs; Sarah Frigo, Compliance/Financial Coordinator

The IU School of Nursing Office of Resource Management would like to present our alignment journey to one, core IU School of Nursing which includes the Indianapolis, Bloomington, Fort Wayne and Columbus campuses. We will be providing an overview and timeline of our administrative integration and highlight the positives, pitfalls, opportunities and tips/tricks along the way. Experts in the areas of finance and administration, hr, faculty affairs, and compliance will be participating as part of the Office of Resources Management team. These experts will speak about the benefits and challenges in the areas of communication, buy-in, identity, efficiency, and collaboration in their areas.

Beyond Awareness: Collaborating Toward an Accessible Education Community of Practice

- Mercedes A. Cannon, Ph.D. and Elena H. Silverman, Ph.D.

This workshop will allow participants to engage with a critical framing of disability justice focused on the higher education context and campus environment. We will encourage participants to collaborate for change through recollecting, reflecting, rewording, and re-ACTing, to go beyond awareness and toward the creation of an accessible education community of practice. We intend to emphasize 'ah-ha' moments, embolden transferrable learning, and inspire reflexive and collaborative calls for reimagining action in the community.

1:50p-2:00p Break/Transition

2:00p-2:50p Breakout Sessions 2

Breaking Down Silos: How to Encourage Collaboration and Harmonize Resources

- Cynthia Holladay, MPA, CCRP and Ann Clark, MS, LMHC

Breaking down silos within the university is important to facilitate staff collaboration and access to resources. This presentation will discuss initiatives implemented to enhance professional development while connecting staff. Cynthia Holladay, MPA, CCRP, will discuss how to create a vibrant TEAMS environment that streamlines access to university resources while promoting collaboration across staff working in different environments and Annie Clark, MS, LMHC, will discuss strategies for coordinating engaging lunch and learn sessions that encourage collaboration across different schools/workspaces while connecting staff to university resources.

Manifesting Your Dream Life

- Lisa Devon, Motivational Poet

Join this engaging workshop about embracing your own power to achieve your personal and professional goals. Sprinkled with jokes, stories and poetry, this session will entertain and enlighten.

Today's Assistant – Expanding Beyond Traditional Boundaries
